Yukie Sugino, Manager of the museum said, "Every year, the number of visitors to our museum has been increasing. Now we are able to welcome visitors from abroad as well as from companies and schools. I would like to thank everyone for their continued support."

■ About the Duskin Museum

The Duskin Museum offers a fun and unique experience to everyone, from children to adults. It consists of two sections: the Cleaning Pavilion and the MISDO Museum. The pavilion highlights the experience-based attraction Make Invisible Dust Visible and the Mopping Master game. Entering the MISDO Museum section, visitors are greeted by the bronze busts of Mister Donut's founders, Mr. and Mrs. Winokur. In this section, visitors can not only enjoy making and topping donuts, but also learn about the history of MISDO's donuts, shop designs and staff uniforms.
