“We are delighted to welcome our 700,000th visitor. At Duskin Museum, we are continuing to introduce new initiatives, including hands-on events and collaborative content with other companies.” Duskin Museum Manager Yukie Sugino says, “Through these endeavors, the museum continues to evolve and provide enjoyable experiences for an even greater number of visitors. The positive feedback we receive from our visitors is a constant source of motivation for all our staff, and we will continue striving to make the museum a special destination.”

■ About the Duskin Museum

The Duskin Museum is an interactive museum for all ages, featuring two areas: the Cleaning Museum, where visitors can learn effective ways to clean and the history of cleaning, and the Mister Donut Museum, which showcases the brand's history and offers hands-on donut-making experiences. The museum also supports Duskin's community outreach initiatives, including programs for children in partnership with local governments.
